

Pitts*burgh rare (pits birg rar) adj 1. A method of preparing a steak or chop whereby the meat is flash seared and charred on the outside and blood red on the inside. 2. also: black and blue fr: Pittsburgh steelworkers lore referring to the men's habit of taking slabs of meat to work and slapping it down on a furnace or other hot metal to sear the outside black. They would eat it barely warm on the inside.
